

Earn over $50,000 per Year!!

Did you know that the average wage for an insurance agent or broker in Alberta is over $50,000* per year? And that doesn't include bonuses! True, you don't start at that level, but if you're ambitious and willing to work for it, that could be your salary within 3 to 5 years. Remember, that is just the average. So if you're a go-getter, then you could easily exceed this average. Oh, did we mention that the insurance industry is pretty much "recession proof," so most likely you won't lose your job if the economy takes a downturn.
